

Adolescent Communication of Emotions Study (ACES)

Participate in our Research today!

The purpose of this study is to understand how adolescents communicate socially and emotionally and respond to different emotions and social situations using advanced computer technology.

Who can participate?

- Children ages 12-17 with or without mental health diagnoses
- Fluent English speakers

What does the study involve?

- One 6-hour study visit at Baylor College of Medicine (or 2 3-hour visits)
- Psychological tests, questionnaires, interviews/conversations with research staff
- Parent questionnaires and interview with Clinician (Parent MUST be present for the visit)
- Optional: 45-minute follow up visit

Compensation

- Up to $145
- Volunteer hours offered upon request

Scan this code
to visit our study webpage!

For more information:

Contact Our Team:

ACES-study@bcm.edu

(713) 798-1918