

HOW TO GET INVOLVED WITH THE AUTISM GENETICS & HUMAN DIVERSITY PROJECT

- Families of African-American descent
- Children 3+ years diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder (ASD)
- Children 3+ years with symptoms of ASD

Participation Involves:

One screening phone call

30-45 minute call to see if your family is eligible

01

Questionnaires and parent interviews about you and your child's development

The study coordinator will guide you through answering questionnaires and interviews w/ the clinical team

02

Visits via video conference and in-person

UCLA's clinical team will conduct a diagnostic evaluation for ASD

03

Observations of your child's behavior

UCLA's clinical team will issue a feedback report detailing the findings from the behavioral assessments and recommendations

04

310.794.4090

autismgenetics@ucla.edu

$250.00 COMPENSATION UPON COMPLETION

PARTICIPANTS NEEDED FOR THE AUTISM GENETICS & HUMAN DIVERSITY PROJECT

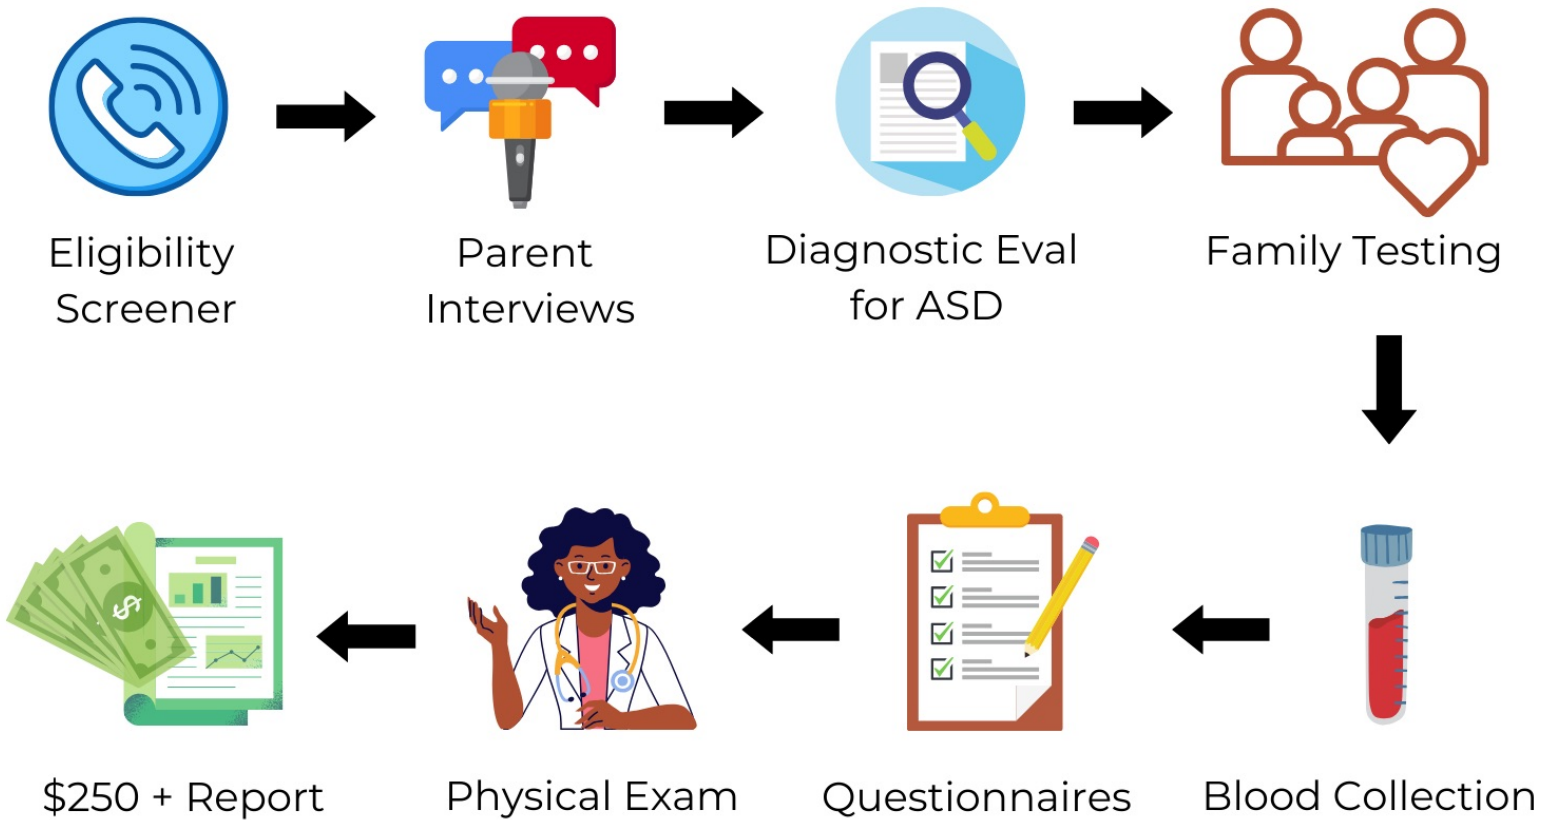

WHO

Black or African American descent families with children aged 3 or older with suspected or diagnosed ASD

WHY

We are committed to helping researchers understand the genetic risk for ASD as well as healthcare disparities in autism services among African American families.

Participation Involves:

310.794.4090

autismgenetics@ucla.edu

$250.00 COMPENSATION UPON COMPLETION